OFFICE OF THE NEW JERSEY STATE ATTORNEY GENERAL Bureau of Securities

The Office of the New Jersey State Attorney General's Bureau of Securities is seeking both attorneys and applicants with a strong background in financial analysis or investment products to lead investigations and enforcement actions involving securities fraud in New Jersey. The Bureau, which has both regulatory and enforcement authority, protects the public from fraud and misrepresentation in the offering and sale of securities.

The ideal candidate will have experience in the investigation and litigation of fraud or the regulation of securities and other business activities and products. Candidates with (1) a law or regulatory enforcement or investigatory background; (2) knowledge of complex financial instruments, financial records or financial accounting; or (3) knowledge of federal and state securities laws are encouraged to apply. The selected applicant must reside in (or intend to become a resident of) New Jersey.

Candidates should submit a cover letter and resume with contact information to John Seubert at SeubertJ@dca.lps.state.nj.us. Only individuals selected for further screening should expect acknowledgment of receipt.

Salary Range may be from $55K to 72K dependent upon level of expertise in securities law.
