

JOB POSTING

Position Title: Securities Director

Tennessee Department of Commerce and Insurance Securities Division

Location: Nashville, Tennessee

Salary Range: $54,504 to $98,112, based on qualifications and experience

Duties and Responsibilities:

The Tennessee Department of Commerce and Insurance is seeking a Securities Director to lead in the effective enforcement of the Tennessee Securities Act and Rules. The Securities Director's primary responsibilities will be in the direction and oversight of Enforcement Section staff, including those in examination, support, and investigation roles. They will work closely with local, state, and federal law enforcement and related agencies in building their knowledge base related to securities, which will better the Section and the Department's ability to protect the public.

Qualifications:

Legal or law enforcement experience is beneficial in this position, but not required; prior supervisory experience is also a plus.
